If the master servers have a ton of bandwidth and website hosting doesn't take up much space, you could set up a very cheap hosting service for some Renegade clans, or just some personal pages. Like $0.50 - $1.00 for a few MB of space a month. Or even offer an email service.

Say 100 people out of all the community sign up, you will have $50-100 a month.

Alternatively you could offer a free account, but it will have a mandatory RenGuard donations button.

It may be a lot of hassle at first but I guess it will pay off in the long run.
