BlazeDragoonEverything is a steaming pile of shit to you....that is unless you didn't make it. So ACK honestly though...why did you start saying shit about my map when it wasn't needed? I have been sitting here awhile wondering why you flamed the map I made. Also I do not think the reborn team does not need to prove anything maybe they are like me....The fact the I make maps for fun and as a hobby ,not to be all pro at it. I do it for fun and for people to enjoy ,if they enjoy it let them.

I like lots of things that I didn't make. NeoSaber's levels are quite excellent and have a lot of atmosphere to them. They blow just about everything out of the water in this community. Given the choice of playing Renegade with his work, or playing Reborn, I'd take his work and Renegade. Renegade may not be all that fun, but at least it doesn't look like ass and have a bunch of assclowns for a development team.

If I said your work sucks, get the fuck over it. You act like I'm sleeping with your wife when I say your work is crap. Here's an idea, "I attack your work because it sucks, and so that people will see that it sucks and play something better. If I want to do that, let me."

mod makers are immature

So says the guy with "Aircraftkiller is a nerdy Jew" in his signature. You got something against Jewish people? You must be the embodiment of maturity with that kind of mindset.
