JavaxcxSorry buddy, but I didn't say I trust him, nor did I say that I condone his actions.

Stop taking everything at face value. The news isn't always the real story. I'd be curious to know what the news in Iraq is right now. I'm sure you'd be just as surprised as I would.

So then don't say anything in his defense. Which is exactly what you did. You are just trying to save your ass after yelling that Iraq did not have wmd.
