After the Gulf war, to my knowledge, Saddam had a steady flow of UN inspectors go through his country and found nothing. In fact, they found no evidence to show he was making WMDs. Again, only to my knowledge. Kirby or K9 would probably know in better detail than I could ever explain anyway.

I'm not defending Saddam. He was an awful person. I'm trying to help you understand that what your local news tells you isn't necessarily the truth. THAT isn't new news.
