Quote:and you know what i dont give a shit about what you think.

Then why, praytell, did you write a paragraph about me and what I think?

Quote:you need your team to do this stuff for you

I need my team to do certain jobs, that's why I have a fucking team... You know, near-professionals who know their jobs and can expedite the process of creating a game based on the W3D engine.

No game company hires one person to do graphics, programming, scripts, gameplay testing, direction, sounds, textures, 3D models, QA assurance, etc... So WTF is your point, that I do what most intelligent people do and hire a team to help me accomplish my goal? :rolleyes: Yeah REAL POINT THERE BUDDY..

Quote: ingame, are you acturally gonna go up tho the humvee, and look carefully at the wheel or whatever and say, "oh look its blurry" or whatever the hell you want to say.

Yes, because I like playing things that look good. If it looks like shit, chances are I don't want to use it.
