No one has said there was a link between Saddam and 9/11. This war isn't about 9/11. It's about preventing it from happening again. The only possible link between Saddam and 9/11 is that it's been reported that Mohammed Atta met with an Iraqi government official in Czechoslovakia. This isn't confirmed and is not being used to formulate a tie. However there are plenty of documented incidents of Osama/Al Qaeda and Iraq having ties.
