Yep, obviously that's why. Nothing to do with the fact you know you'll lose.

I think the only FUD player I have even the vaguest respect for as a player is Pfs70, simply because he's the only one who's ever actually accepted a challenge (Instead of the rest of FUD who prefer to pat each other on the backs and think you're elite). Granted me and Prox got basekill on them 2v4 on Field in about fifteen minutes and they said we had "autoshot", whatever THAT is, then me and Ice won by basekill on hourglass 2v2 and they said we had MRLS damage hacks, lol. But, even so, at least he had the balls to play us.
