That is not a licensed version of vBulletin. I highly suggest you remove it or you will be hearing from Jelsoft's attorneys soon.

You're violating the license by removing the powered by vBulletin, sorry. That's an obviously nulled version.

<http://www.dod4ever.com/forums/themes/eimages/vbcopy.gif> should be linking back to vBulletin, but you have nullified it to link back to your own site.

Because, I know many of the developers of vBulletin personally and I'm not about to let their money be stolen by idiots like this.
