Ok

I have installed rengaurd 1.01 but when i start renegade and the rengaurd screen comes up...

Sorry for the inconvenience but we have to close it down... Blah blah blah

I noticed on the homepage that crimson said to make it go into COMPATIBILITY MODE.

can some one give me CLEAR step by step instructions on how to do this

You need to installed Rg 1.00 and auto update it.. Otherway it wont work. Then you do what it says.. and if it terminate itself ... Then you need to download htmlayout.dll from RenGuard
