even though it was a rumor it seemed pretty reasonable release date.

It'll never be out. EA hates you, and WW coders are slackers.

It's quite true... less they prove it wrong, I hope they're working on it else mods will takeover renegade with everyone downloading airmods...

WHEN WILL YOU LEARN? It will be out soon and you are just saying this because you 'think' they are ready but they are not! So STFU! Learn to wait.

I officialy hate westwood and EA. I'm only playing Renegade because of it's modding potential. I'm sick and tired of them always making promises that they know they can't keep, and they never do keep them. There coders are pretty pathetic to take them this long, I know alot of friends that could of had aircrafts in, and A-10, and recon bike balanced months ago, and better. And they probly have alot of coders.. It's just pathetic. There out drinking bear, and at strip clubs, they don't give a crap, they already got our money, they'll wait as long as they want to finish it, because they don't have to.

Airmods are getting better and better.. and people are finding out new things.. We'll probly have orcas in the menu and coming out of the weapons factory befor they release the patch.. only problem is the maps.
