Can anybody throw me some links for free texture packs?

I am now mapping for CoD, Ren, Zero Hour and a couple of older FP shooters.

Any help appreciated, thanx!

You can try making your own textures for yourself, or you can visit <http://www.3dcafe.com> and learn from the free textures posted there.

You can also find some nice terrain tutorials for Adobe Photoshop here.

You could even take pictures with a digital camera if you have one.

Hiya.

sorry to drag this back nr the top again, thanks to all those who posted.

I was asking the question cause my HDD burned up and maybe 5 years worth of models, textures, maps, web-pages, tools etc burned up with it.

Couldnt afford a back-up device ( )

I will get round to making my own textures, but I need time to assemble them. I have googled lycosed and asked, but most of the stuff I had is gone.

I just thought a few other peeps might have some handy map building links as I am back to ground zero and any help is better than none!

thanx
