lol at all those renegade icons in your taskbar :S

Close all of them and then retry :S

the rengaurd icons are in takbar because of rengaurd crashing and they wont go away untill u hover mouse over em but they wont affect launching RG.

but ive never seen so many icon in the sys tray before!! even without the RG ones

Those icons have nothing to do with this issue.

The icons are there because RG crashed like 10x and the icon (for everytime he tried) stayed in the taskbar.

To remove those icons he only has to move over the icon with his mouse.

Ok i have Rengaurd 1.02 and still have the same problem

If i install 1.00 then it works good adn then it does auto update and then i have 1.02 and then are the problems back

Any1 an idea
