MAH MEGAHURTZ!!!!!!!!!!!!111

OMG HAXX0RS

On a serious note,
Quoting something with a quote doesn't work too good either.

Example.

[quote="name"]
blah blah
[quote] text blah blah don't tell me yer life story[/quote]
]

Notice the last tag... "]" instead of "[/quote]"

This just happened to me so I just thought I should point it out.

K9TrooperBabies are not the hard part. It's keeping them out of trouble when they get older that proves to be a challenge.

i was talking about the fear of pain....im allergic to pain and lets just say squeezing something the size of a watermelon out of your "you know where" is gonna hurt some.....I truely wish the story about the stalks that my folks told me when i was little was true.....(you know babies come pre-packed, wrapped up and left on your doorstep by a stalk)

As long as the baby's father is there things should be fine.

Remember you can take the drugs
