ACK or anybody, my renegade name is cytipped

I need some help removing a ban from the fastconn 1 server. I was banned by iishotii who says i cheat.

I need help from any1 that can tell them otherwise, possibly someone from The Pits server who knows me (i.e. mods/admins).

I posted screenshots and did what they asked but that didn't help. Well, was worth a try to post here.

If your Cyannide (or however you spell it) from The Pits, you didn't use to cheat.. although i havern't played with you in a long time

Don't waste your time with the "Fastconn" servers, they suck, but they are great for moderator abuse!

nah, ur thinking of cyanidd (*spelling)

I'm cytipped. Different person, just trying to get some help. It's not the fact that I was banned from fastconn, just want a good reputation.

Hmm... why Aimbots would make a new account to post that when he has already an existing, functional account here?

Thats what happens when infants are given mod powers.

I wouldn't worry about a server ban ruining your rep.

Aimbots made a new account because aimbots hates the name kawolsky

I fail to see how the servers suck or there is moderator abuse, there was and people have been removed.

Ya, I posted there. Few arguments with some players and a mod but got Speedy to clear things up.

All settled I hope. Thanks for info and insight folks.

I agree that the fastc0nn servers have moderator's abuse but at least they host servers for us to play on.

iishotii isnt even a mod there...he's was a temp mod at the time....I guess the mod who temp'd him could be at fault somewhat.
