could this have been possible and is there a way to find out what was really goin on?

There are always going to be n00bs trying to get around RenGuard. Maybe he found a way around it. And I think you shouldn't have been !dtm'd, you had the right to !kick him instead of !qkick, and that he is a n00b that can't kill anyone or anything without Big Head of Final Ren. Enough said.
