Any chance of netcode fixes?

I don't know about anyone else but I get extremely annoyed every time a vehicle comes at me, I dodge it, somehow die and slide along the floor to where it thought I was. Or when you take cover behind something, die, and slide along the floor back out to where they seen you.

I've been long dead from holding my breath,

I like this game but it's just shit like this that makes you wish more time was spent on it.

can't you just complain to EA?
O, ok, i take it back, (key word: EA == Crappy,crap,crap)

but would any former westwood programmers have a copy that they wanna share annonomously ???

I wouldn't be saying anything about EA games if I were you. They are a business not a group of programmers going for a good time and some good laughs.

Servers cost money. Bandwidth and server space. Do you know how much bandwidth it takes to maintain 3 server lobbies?

Everyone is lucky renegade is still online. EA games sure aint making any money of Renegade.
