Does anyone know of a site where I can see all of the new stuff in this X-pack? I'd ask on the EE forums, but the bastards don't let you register if you have a free email service

Well, you get a new age, some new units in that age, and a Mars terrain, with the "space" replacing the oceans and "carriers" replacing the ships.

Empire Earth owned, but the x-pack sucked.

Hey, your internet service provider should've provided you with an e-mail address, something like yourparentsname@freemove.com or initial.surname@ntlworld.com, check up on that & use it to register if you can find it.
