Finished this today, created both the model and the texture.

The Service Depot is the only structure that can repair friendly vehicles, and it's the only structure that rearms friendly Mine Layers.

Once lost, you lose the ability to get repairs and Mine Layer armament resupply.

If all goes well, the next patch will feature its repair animation from Red Alert.

1942 Vietnam? Wtf?

How the fuck could Renguard get you banned? Do you actually have proof, or did you just guess?

Another n00b bashing RenGuard. It's not RenGuards fault you got banned. the only time RenGuard runs is while you play Renegade then it shuts off when you exit. So unless you were playing Renegade and Battlefield Vietnam at the same time RenGuard had nothing to do with it.

Well AK, the Allied Service Depot looks good, but the Soviet one kind of looks like it is pink and not red. At least it seems like that to me, maybe I was just expecting more of a red color, I don't know I just think that it should be more red because it looks to light right now.
