G4's hosts are the stupidest people on the planet. Their shows are cheesy and you can't take their rating system seriously. If you agree with me put this image in your sig.

And that's why G4 had only a fourth of TechTV's subscribers.

G4 has screwed techtv up. Im in the east cost and almost every other hour my screen shows up "No Signal" then the show it was showing comes back like 5 minutes later... And g4's shows were all like made 5 months ago... Seriously G4 and TechTv's murger was the worst decision ever!

First off:
I'm glad that they were smart enough to keep most TechTV shows.

Second:
Some shows are shown at the same time on both channels...??? Why?

I guess they will fill those up. I'm alright with new programming as long as they don't put some cheesy, shallow rubbish on there.

Hopefully a little bit of TTV will brush off on G4.

That stay un-connected GIF really doesn't work all that great. I have trouble reading G4 on the orange thing because it appears and slides over to the side so fast.
