The War Angels are hosting a renegade tourney for both AOW and Snipe.

Sign up at the forums on <http://thewarangel.net/TwA/modules/news/>

here are some details:

TwA_Charmmed

1. You are not allowed to be in 2 teams, but you can be in one team for the snipe and in another team for the AOW.
2. If we found out you have been in more than one team for aow or snipe then you will be disqualified, and also your main team you were in may be disqualified.
3. Maps that are going to be played will be posted soon, and 3 maps will be played for AOW and 3 maps for Snipe.
4. Keep in mind to always keep an eye open in the forum section to see when your team is going to play and against who, and we are going to post it one week before, depending on how many join.
5. Every game that is played one person going to control it ... wish mean that a person be in there to check so everything work as it shall and that the ss we need to have better control over it be taken (team names that was played must be added when the ss be sent to the leaders in TwA, so always keep in mond to not forget what teams it was that played) .
6. Cheats are not allowed, if anyone is found cheating they will be disqualified along with their team, and then banned from all TwA servers.
7. The servers that are going to be ran for the tourney are going to be using RenGuard. Get it at <http://www.renguard.com> NOW
8. If anyone in your team cant play at the time their game is supposed to be, then either you can replace that person with someone else(that is not in another team) or also ask for a new time and then we will try and work things out for you.

More rules be up as soon as we get more :S

Ok.. lets see if I can do this as good as possible .. Since there are many people playing Renegade, we in TwA came up with this idea... First it started out with a topic TwA_SnipeJD made and then TwA_Katie came up with more ideas, and now they have been growing in my head and the outcome for it is this:

C&C Renegade 2004 tournament ..

Snipe

AOW

Snipe

Sniping teams will be paired 4x4.

First Place Prize is acquired by getting the most kills during the length of the tourney.

A screenshot must be taken before the game is over, so we are able to see the kills each team had so we can count them towards the total tournament kills for each team. The team with the most kills wins.

AOW

AOW teams will be paired 6x6.

tourney,

and at end of the tourney, all the players in the winning team get a prize.

A screenshot must be taken before the game is over, so we can see the team points and can count them towards the total points for that team in the tournament

AOW is a good way to team up with players who are in your clan (if you are in a clan). If a Clan participates, they will be given a tourney banner or a slogan to get up on their clan site.

You are allowed to sign up for all the games but are only allowed to be in one team. No double teaming.

This Renegade tournament is created and hosted by the founders, leaders and section leaders from the clan The War Angels.

If you want to donate for this tourney then please contact TWA_Charmmed.

The money donated will go towards a tourney fund, which will be used for the prizes and for all the work/hosting that will be done for the length of the tourney. (this is first meant for the clan TWA, when we are the clan who stand for the tourney)

The prizes have not been decided, but it should be done by the middle of this month.

Tourney Prizes Selection

Snipe

Winner - First prize

2nd place - 2nd prize

3rd to 5th place - 3rd prize

AOW

Winner team - First prize
2nd team place - 2nd prize
3rd team place - 3rd prize

As she says, these are temporary rules. English is not her first language, being from Sweden

And I agree 6v6 is too big for sniping. 4v4 would be better.

EDIT: A very quickly revised set of rules, just for you guys:

Quote:1. You are not allowed to be in 2 teams, but you can be in one team for the sniping and in one team for the AOW.

2. If we find out that you have been in multiple teams for AOW or sniping then you will be disqualified, and also the team you have been in may be disqualified also.

3. The maps that are going to be played will be up soon. Three maps will be played for AOW and three maps for Sniping.

4. Make sure you always keep an eye open in the Tournament section of the forum to see when your team will play and against who. We are going to add it 1 week before it happens depending on the spots.

5. In every game that is played, one person will be in control of it ... which means that a person will be in there to check that everything works as it should and that the SS we need to have better control over it is taken (The names of teams that played must be added when the SS is sent to the leaders in Twa, so always keep in mind to not forget what teams it was that played).

6. Cheats are not allowed, and if anyone in your team uses a cheat you will all be disqualified and the cheater will also be banned for life on all servers that are hosted by The War Angels.

7. The servers that are going to be run for the tourney are going to use RenGuard.

8. If anyone in your team can't play the date the game will be, then either you can replace that person with someone else, who is not in any team, or also ask for a new date and then we move next clan after up in the spots.

It's almost midnight, so if I missed something, sue me

Please, have some consideration, this woman is swedish and we should appreciate the fact that she can write in english. Can you write in swedish ? No i dont think so. Plus, you said "their" instead of "they're", this is incorrect is it not...

Have some respect for people who go out of their way to organise things like this...

It doesn't matter if we can write Swedish or not. What does matter is the person who wrote your tournament information is writing in poor English and is making you look unprofessional; not even amateur.

If you're going to write in a language that you barely understand, the least you can do is have a native speaker/writer translate it correctly for you and correct any mistakes.

Sure, I don't know Swedish, but I sure as hell am not going to write Swedish without knowing what the fuck I'm doing.

Ok For all of you who are concerned with the way the rules have been presented, i appreciate your concerns and have re-written the rules for charmed.

TwADarK:

Quote:

1. You are not allowed to be in 2 teams, but you can be in one team for the sniping and in one team for the AOW.
2. If we find out that you have been in multiple teams for AOW or sniping then you will be disqualified, and also the team you have been in may be disqualified also.

Ok, my part :

Okay, let's try to do this in the best way possible. Since there are so many people playing C&C Renegade, we, TwA, (The War Angels for those of you who don't know), came up with an idea.

To begin with, the idea emerged from a topic that TwA_SnipeJD made, TwAKatie developed the idea further and this resulted in my decision to host a tournament.

C&C Renegade 2004 tournament.

The tournament will have two categories:

Snipe

AOW (all out war)

Snipe

The teams will consist of four people on each side.

The prize for 1st Place may be acquired by getting the most kills in the course of the whole tournament. A screenshot must be shown before the game is over, so we are able to see the kills and may keep a record for the end of the tournament.

AOW

The teams will consist of six people on each side.

The prize for 1st Place may be acquired by getting the most points in the course of the whole tournament.

However in the AOW category all the players in the winning team have the opportunity of earning a prize.

A screenshot must be shown before the game is over, so we are able to see the points and may keep a record for the end of the tournament.

AOW is an excellent opportunity to team up with players who are in your clan (if you are in a clan). If a clan participates, we will distribute a tournament banner for them to put on their clan website.

You are allowed to sign up for both games however, signing up for more than one team will NOT be tolerated. Please do not do this.

This Renegade tournament is created by the founders, leaders and section leaders from the clan known as TwA (The War Angels)

Visit our site at Http://thewarangels/twa/

If you would like to donate towards the tournament please contact TwA_Charm'd via the TwA forum. Any money donated will go towards a fund which will be used for

Prizes
Server Hosting
Organisation of the tournament

Any donations would be greatly appreciated.

We have not decided what the prizes will be yet, however this will be decided mid-June.

Tourney Prizes Selection
Snipe
Winner - First prize
2nd place - 2nd prize
3rd to 5th place - 3rd prize
Winning team - First prize
2nd place - 2nd prize
3rd place - 3rd prize

If the tournament is going to be who has the most points after all games are played it will become a pointwhore tournament.

You guys should simply change it so that every team plays every other team 3 times each and in the end whoever has the most wins out of all the games wins.

(it wont let me post on the war angle forum for some reason...)

the system we going to have for the aow is this quoted TwA_Katie

Renegade Tourtament Point's System All Out War.

Destroyed Buildings - 5pts
Player Kills - 1pts
Destroyed Tanks - 2pts

Extra's(at the end of the round)

Mvp's - 1pts
MostKills - 1pts

Note: This is how we grade the player's and the one wiht most points wins.

Hmmm. I think maybe 2 points for a 1000 credit infantry, and maybe higher points for MVP and Most kills (2?). Also 5 seems rather few for killing a building...8 might be more fitting....

More value should be placed on buildings. After all, they're the most important things to be destroyed.

Also, what about pedestal beacons?

Im pretty sure it will be enabled seeing as the pedestal option has been enabled at twaserv for as long as i can remember.

My only problem is that those who remain in a defensive position and manage to save the base by staying at an engineer all game get nothing as recognition. Not that big of a deal, but IF there is a way around it, then it would make my life much easier as thats the role I'll most likely be playing.

BTW, as I posted in the TwA forums, I'm freelance, so if anyone wants me as a team member, feel free to ask.
