Does anyone know of any good video editing software?

I have videos that I'd like to edit slightly or covert into a better compressed format. I'm aware of Adobe Premier, but I'd prefer a free program since I'm only doing a few video convertions.

Thanks.

If only I had $600 to buy it... :/

Thanks for the free suggestions, I'll try them out.

Can you use the demo of After Effects?

Because After Effects is basically the best editing program in that it has every friggin feature you could ever possibly want.
