Well I read the list and i dont think i could see this anywhere.

When you disconnect or somehow leave the server accidentally, or renegade crashes, when you rejoin that same game, the purchase terminal often doesnt work.

To solve this problem people wait until they die as a soldier, then it works again.

I know it isn't exactly really bad, but i was wondering if there's any reason behind it and if you know why it happens ?

Thanks in advance

Yeah, it's just annoying when you spawn inside a building with a few bars left that's being pounded by tanks and you can't fix it.

And then you have to either run all the way out to the enemy base to get killes, or wait 30 seconds for your timed C4 to blow.

Or else you respawn at the farthest corner of your base.
