I know someone who has a problem seeing the advanced game listings. Everything else in renegade works fine, but he cant see the list. I think it is a file he has in his data folder or something. Can someone help out please?

objects.ddb will do that sometimes, I don't use the file but I've read alot about how leaving objects.ddb in a folder will disallow the viewing on the advanced listings. :rolleyes:
See if he has it, if so, have him delete it & then try
If not, no clue what the problem is right off. If it isn't there, see if a reinstall of Renegade will work for him, it usually fixes that for me

LOL just search on kazza for text files labled "renegade serial". You will surely find one with the abunence of players that have left the game.

Mind telling me what this is

That sux...for $20 USD you can buy TibSun, TibSun: Firestorm, Red Alert 2, Yuris Revenge & Renegade, I bought a 2nd copy of all those games this year so that I wouldn't need to worry about broken/lost CDs/CD-keys

Looks like you guys need to be more organized with your stuff. I keep all my C&C CDs in a certain CD holder, and I never lose them. :rolleyes:

I got a crap load of Warcraft 3 serials and norton 2004 serials You can find all kinds of serials off kazza. Just make sure you scan keygens with a anti virus scanner.

I am organized, just my sis likes to take things from me & put them somewhere, so it's good to keep a backup somewhere only I know about Considering Renegade is now bundled with the other c&c's and goes for 20.00, just buy a new one.

Why, do you regularly play with all 300 of your PC's at the same time?
