Where is dri reign ? and sole survivor mod ?

TheKGBspy told me dri reign is dead... is that true ?

Anyway, RA2 Vengence is moving to Deezer Studios.

That's like a blatent ripoff of "Deez Nuts" and "DeeZire." I don't even see how you're a studio. Most of you haven't met, don't know each other well, and have a hard time working together as a team to make the public think you know what you're doing.

Why do you think your forum is pretty dead compared to most others? Before you go moving that RA2 thing over to deez nuts, you ought to get your problems fixed.

this was my choice to move there since i am the project leader. i talked about that with my team member and they give me the choice. They just want when DR will be back, it will have alot of info/update like if it was the official web page.

yes DR will be back.. but when i dont know. Somerhino and Bigwig will look for a new host. They are still in Ra2: Vengeance team too but they want to stay SS under DriReign name.

My decision have been taken a while ago, but nothing was really official. Reborn and Vengeance where working togheter. Not all team member want to work on reborn or on Vengeance too.. thats there choice, but they agree to give some help when we will need it.

Knowing the other team member? i know alot on them. there is just 1 or 2 i dont know alot about them... but for other one i know a bunch on them i even supposed to meet them so the moving of Vengeance wont really change thing from they currently are.. just the name is moved to another place, new web site and more stuff etc. people keep working on reborn, and some on both mods. There is alot of stuff done in reborn to make a mega update... and when i say mega i dont exagorate... but i think they wait for the D-day btw what is deez nuts?

The name Dri Reign seems to remind me of an old RTS game I used to enjoy and that is Dark Reign, there were some funky units and buildings in that game.

Quote:And I don't bullshit people...wtf are you talking about ? Imao

First, you say you want Reborn to be like TS. Then you say it's based off TS. Then, when anyone tries to tell you to improve it, you say "we're just doing this for fun" and make up excuses.

What's it going to be? You working on it to please people, or just making it for the hell of it so that whenever anyone complains, you can half-ass it more?

This was the problem with Reborn before. If you don't want to work, don't fucking do it. Just stop lying and be honest about it.

Don't lie about me man !!!

And when somebody tells you that you take that too seriously, it's not spamming...

And for the cookie, it was funny... But you are not here for fun, for you PC games and mods is a professional stuff...

Yes, it is. It's totally irrelevant to the subject at hand.

It doesn't matter if you do it for fun. That's also irrelevant. What people want when they want something fixed, or done, is not "I do this for fun," they want to hear "I will do it" or "I won't do it."

So cut to the chase and stop bullshitting. Reborn has had its last chance with me, it's not getting another.

I would agree with you if they had said it in defense of poor work, but they have not. As far as I can tell, this argument is about their choice of name, which is something that I do not feel is necessarily a factor on the quality of their mod. Furthermore, I fail to see how "Renegade Alert Development Team" is any more original....

It's just a name, no need to take it so far.

Do I care if it's a better name? Not really. That's not what the issue here is. I keep telling it to you over and over, either you're a retard or you're so poor in English that you can't understand what I'm getting at.

Lets try this again.

The more you say "We're just doing this for fun," like you've said for the past months, the more you bullshit and lie to people.

If you're doing it for fun and just fun alone, you'd have done it by yourselves without telling anyone and just played it in LAN games. That's not the case, you're presenting it to the online community and you bullshit them with that response.

If it's that hard for you to fix what you've made, why are you doing this? For fun? Perhaps people find it fun to bash Reborn for reverting to their old ways, so I hope you don't have a problem with that.

I don't need to speak French. It's a useless language in the world when most people who do international relations, including business transactions and diplomacy, use English. You're speaking English in an English forum.

Sounds suspiciously similar to Angel of Dawn. "Most of your lies are not true!"

<@JeffLee67[Woodworking]> NNN News Update: Mars lander problem has been isolated: It apparently has some Reborn code in it. When it deployed, it just blew up! the reborn team doesn't have to provide any kind of work to the ccr community. if they feel like making a mod, then they'll do it. if they don't listen to suggestions and their mod ends up crappy and nobody plays it, then it's their problem. and if somebody wants a better cnc3 mod, then he should start to work on it,, Doesn't matter if they "have" to do anything or not. The fact is, they ARE doing something, and it's called "bullshitting people into thinking we're making anything better than a steaming pile of crap."

Everything is a steaming pile of shit to you....that is unless you didn't make it.So ACK honestly though...why did you start saying shit about my map when it wasn't needed?I have been sitting here awhile wondering why you flamed the map I made.Also I do not think the reborn team does not need to prove anything maybe they are like me....The fact the I make maps for fun and as a hobby ,not to be all pro at it.I do it for fun and for people to enjoy ,if they enjoy it let them.

I like lots of things that I didn't make. NeoSaber's levels are quite excellent and have a lot of atmosphere to them. They blow just about everything out of the water in this community. Given the choice of playing Renegade with his work, or playing Reborn, I'd take his work and Renegade. Renegade may not be all that fun, but at least it doesn't look like ass and have a bunch of assclowns for a development team.

If I said your work sucks, get the fuck over it. You act like I'm sleeping with your wife when I say your work is crap. Here's an idea, "I attack your work because it sucks, and so that people will see that it sucks and play something better. If I want to do that, let me."

So says the guy with "Aircraftkiller is a nerdy Jew" in his signature. You got something against Jewish people? You must be the embodiment of maturity with that kind of mindset.

Sigh....I'm not even gonna bother with you and I don't know why I did in the first place,so I'm done and out.....and ACK I hope you learn to have a better attitude towards things,instead of being a ass and saying it sucks maybe you can find the good aspects in things instead of the bad...like I could go naming tons of bugs from your maps and saying they suck...but do I know,and smiley in my opinion everyone is immature someway that includes me. Well I'm done bitching nice....um...talking to you all later.

Aircraftkiller is threatened when someone makes something better than him. So he hopes by flaming the person or person(s) that are making the map/mod he can make them go away.

If ACK flames your work, he is in reality is just jealous and being a little cry baby.

that's bullshit.. I gave you a good example..

Aircraftkiller is texturing too.. but in his development team for RenAlert.. consist a person who can do it way better then him and his work is awesome..

geuss what? Aircraftkiller doesn't flame him he is not jelous.. that texture guy is sure good with that.
