Get a domain and don't use a free forum service. Well, if you do use a free forum service at least use phpBB well i run a server off my computer at <http://24.211.41.133/> for my site which i could use php, but sometimes my computer may be out due to electrical storms so i thought that if i had a free host i wouldnt have to worry about the forums being down. if you have any suggestions as in links for different resources then please post.

JTeKE: oh

JTeKE: nice

SS217: And Crimson banned from wol

JTeKE: that would be funny as hell

Why would anyone want RG shut down except for those too lazy/stupid to download it and the cheaters?
