The PKM is the primary weapon for the Soviet Officer. It is equal to the M60 in every way. Rate of Fire, Range, Magazine size, and damage.

The Model was made by Sir Phoenixx, and the texture by Darkblade.

The and texture look really good, I think the fading on the magazine is a little excessive, but I'm not complaining.

No, i mean the box magazine. On the front of it, the fading [brown smudges] is a little excessive in my opinion, but it's not that bad.

Yeah, I can barely notice the smudges, I don't really see much harm in them at this point in time. Other than that, the model and texture are both very well done. I really like the wood texturing on the butt end of the weapon, makes it look like it was made from real good quality wood .
