Either the current moderators dont have the time and we need new ones or simply no one wants to do there job whats the problem its seems now that anyone can say ever they want and get away with it. Maybe we could fix this and make the forums more enjoyable. At its current state im probly going to get a reply if you dont like it then leave..but what ever lets make this community live longer and get it running ar a healthy state.

I loves them moderators.

(Post edited by warranto, hey we COULD always start doing this if we don't like whats being said. But I feel most would complain about unfair moderation.)

Yes, we have the blessing of fairly lenient moderators. However, if we happened to have very tight-fisted moderators who didn't allow people to say anything remotely negative about them or certain things, it wouldn't be against the law. That's really what I meant by that statement, I wasn't complaining about whatever 'rights' we have here.

I would never think of saying this in my life but I think Ack was the best moderator this fourm ever had because he actually did stuff, altho he would still be biased most likly when there were post about reborn but at least something was getting done back topics were getting locked. Yes, but sometimes one can create bad reputation for the whole group. The only good thing i've heard so far in the Reborn-BHS relations is from Angel of Dawn, saying Reborn will use RenGuard. And everything else is of this quality:

Quote:Reborn still sucks

Quote:If I had the chance, I'd wipe my ass with you and toss you on the street corner like I did Reborn...

Quote:Reborn already does a good job of making Renegade look bad.

Quote:Reborn

actions to speak for the rest of the group, when in fact you couldn't be more wrong. You may not be pro-RenAlert, but your tolerance of ACK's incessant Reborn-bashing makes it hard to believe that's true.

It's not ACK's actions that are speaking for you. It's your own inaction.

That's an odd way of judging a game modification based on two separate games.

Renegade Alert should be judged by its quality and content, not by "well it's Red Alert so that means TS roxxorz it," Reborn's inferior in every department and that's why almost no players use it, and why almost no one visits their forum or website.

Personally, I found that people respond to you, and what you're doing, when you let them think that their opinion actually matters. Making people happy with what you are doing is the most important part, otherwise no one wants to play it or be associated with it.

It's no wonder Reborn failed.

Renegade Alert should be judged by its quality and content,
ACK, "its content" is taken directly from the RA Series. Isn't that the idea? If someone simply doesn't like the RA universe, that's a perfectly valid reason to dislike your mod.

It's bullshit to say "you're not allowed to dislike my mod because you don't like the universe it's based in."

-----(end of serious post)-----

Also, you fucking stupid hypocrite, apostrophes are not the only thing that has multiple uses. Remember that little 'med' discussion we had a little while back? Some words have more than one use too. Try to remember how much of a dumb fuck you are the next time you want to nitpick with people who are smarter than you. And then just don't respond, because you'll only make yourself look even more stupid if you do.

Going out of your way to correct people on their use of the English language under your pretense to "point out idiocy when you see it" (paraphrased), then misusing the English language yourself makes you a hypocrite.

Mad IvanCrimsonJust because Aircraftkiller is pro-RenAlert doesn't mean BHS is. You take all of his actions to speak for the rest of the group, when in fact you couldn't be more wrong. BHS supports any and all modifications and work for Renegade, and we have no plans to exclude ANY modification with our tools.

Yes, but sometimes one can create bad reputation for the whole group. The only good thing i've heard so far in the Reborn-BHS relations is from Angel of Dawn, saying Reborn will use RenGuard. And everything else is of this quality:

Quote:Reborn still sucks

Quote:If I had the chance, I'd wipe my ass with you and toss you on the street corner like I did Reborn...

Quote:Reborn already does a good job of making Renegade look bad.

Quote:Reborn

Quote:He's using Reborn as "art," man, must be one of those abstract kind of artists. You know, the ones who think a toilet bowl in the corner of a room is art.

-What the Fuck?!

Its like a zoo in this forum O_o.

Once again... none of those phrases came from mac, Blazer, or myself. We are the principals of BHS. mac and AoD communicate frequently and we are working on a sort of partnership, but the details are still being worked on.

While ACK is a member of BHS, he is not the embodiment of BHS, nor the sole voice. However, he is my friend and a very talented level designer/texture artist.

I think many people like AirCraftKiller and respect him as an excellent modder and mapper for the Renegade community, however I do think that many people dislike his bashing of the other mod teams even though they are trying and may not be up to AK's standards, but that is his personal opinion, and people should not be saying that is what BHS thinks.

Even though it was forgotten, the thread was about the moderation of the Renegade Forums. What I posted wasn't just related to AK or whatever.

I tried to prove the fact, that the Renegade Forum is going out of hand with such posts popping here and there. Take any forum in my signature. When something like "-ModNameHere- Sux" appears, it gets closed and the poster is warned for his actions.

While here, when someone posts "Reborn Sux". You just leave it flow until it becomes a hot issue and move it here. Then another "Reborn Sux" appears and it goes on!

Yes, but people dont like being called morons or such.

Quote:"well he only lieks renalart so everyting elaese sux to him omg"

Take this for an example, if he`d told me that with no keyboards, no mics, or without any ways of non-direct contact, face to face, i`d kick his ass like i did with a bum yesterday for talking behind my back.

Freedom of speech is indeed a joy.But its also a way to bypass the problems of reality.Do you realise that since Westwood handed the forums to the community it has been like hell for most members, because of ass-holes talking shit here and there.They are people that have problems in reality and really need to lay it off on other people, knowing they will get away with it.

So what if he did this?He doesnt care because he knows he`ll get away with it.

That picture is humorous not because of what Aircraftkiller said, but because of everybody using Hell Yeah scripts. Since Aircraftkiller was constantly annoying everyone with random Hell Yeahs, a lot of people on IRC put in a script that echoed him. He knew about this, and wrote that long message because it would get echoed. As you can see, the results were phenomenal, not to mention quite funny.

And also, note what he said:

AircraftkillerI hope Crimson finds this funny because if she doesn't we're all dead.

He didn't know he was going to get away with it. He was aware of the possible consequences.
