For those who cannot discern satire, this post is a joke

Will this Big Mac lose sesame seeds, drip sauce, and cause gas like in real life or will it be like the Renalert universe where Einstein says he hates lettuce and all Big Macs are forever altered by his travel back to 1962 where he shakes the hand of the first guy to ever put lettuce on a Big Mac?

That's a piece of shit blazer...

The buns look like they are cardboard, you need to remodele them and learn to texture them.

The meat is disshaped and looks like an arrowhead. It Blows.

Wtf is oozing out of this crap? It looks like crap.

And For God's sake, this model looks like shit with specular.

Yeah, that model isn't to good, the cheese is plastic, the patty looks like plastic as well, the middle bun is just a duplicate of the bottom one. There are little white things coming out of it which are blurry and not detailed, and what is that yellow goo, some shit you wiped on there? And what's with all that specular shit, it is way over used. . .

The sesame seeds look like they are painted right onto the bun, the mustard looks like glue, the lettuce seems to hang like a goddamn curtain, and the beef patty is missing the necessary parasites.

Sole Survivor's KFC Bucketmobile can school that burger anyday.
