Hi,

At about 9:00 (GMT+12) n00bstories IRC and the n00bstories website went offline, well at least to us (a few Kiwi's and aussies).

Before the servers went down we were told it was under attack and then it went down.

Is it just us or are the servers under attack?

The members of these forums came up with the idea for the site back in April 2002 and I implemented it.

Wow Crimson, you are quite polite (just like me), I thought that you would say something like "f_ck you" or "if you don't like it, then leave".
Well good for you.

Yeah, it would have been a lot easier to bash it if it didn't have a large support base, huh?

:rolleyes:
