We aren't far from our next internal beta test wich will be followed by a public release of the beta.

BUT we need some more characters. I need a talented character modeler that can unwrap his models.

(you should be able to model a charcter like Oxanna from tiberian sun.)

If you think you can help us. simply pm me.

Thank you.

(I need also some help for UVW mapping of some models)

So instead your going to just keep making new models , and never think about the maps? lol.

Well i only saw 5 maps, i haven't seen any updates on those yet, and im sure as hell hoping the others get scrapped, as they werent very fun.

And take siege out already, that map is already old enough, and over played to hell, that it just bores me to play it again lol.

The characters are fine, move on make maps now.

I think he was just going to convert Terrance to a Reborn map. I dont think its going to happen now though.

I Messed around with there ultimate conyon map and fixed all the terrain errors and alpha blended it.

Try a different forum such as BF1942 and such.

I highly recommend that everyone never listen to ACK's opinion on Reborn again. All he's trying to do is get the community to start hating. I mean, signing on the IRC channel that talks with RenAlert and introducing himself with the phrase, "Reborn Sucks." Is everyone else blind to the hate propaganda ACK is dishing out the community? As Mugatu from Zoolander so accurately states, "I feel like I'm taking crazy pills!" No matter what the Reborn team trots out, it's always "shit", and whenever they announce something, "Oh, I just know it's going to be terrible!" This isn't how communities work. This is how monarchies work, with one man dishing out opinions and everyone hearing and believing it, no matter how stupid or unbelievable. And last I checked, ACK hasn't been a moderator of these forums for a long while, and in my opinion that's a damn good thing!

Stop hating mods and start believing in them!

Yeah I have. You told me once on IRC when I was playing RenAlert. And from what I've seen, it's been getting better and better, not worse and worse. But your response hasn't changed at all. Crap, crap, crap, crap, crap, crap. You don't have to believe in the mod, but it is not too much to ask to stop slandering and spewing hate towards a mod regardless of what happens.

This seemed like a pretty good time to share my personal history with Reborn. So this was a few months ago, like late February or so. AoD proposed that Renegade: A New Hope join Reborn at Deezire. I turned him down. But I have always been a big Tiberium Sun fan, so I offered my own talent, as well as that of a few of my staff mappers, such as Blazea58, DesolatorDan, and Icedog90, to make maps for his mod when we had the time. I showed him a few of our maps, which are pretty high quality, but not perfect or famous or anything. Out of the blue he asked me how I thought our maps compared to those of Aircraftkiller. I responded that ours were definitely worse, but that working together we could still put out a pretty good product. He expressed his opinion to me that Aircraftkiller's maps are terrible, and that if we considered our maps inferior to his, we had no business working for Reborn. Naturally I was pretty upset, because not only does everyone pretty much agree that ACK makes the best maps around, but also because, in comparison to Reborn's beta release maps, anything would seem nice. I said that I thought he was in no position to turn down mapping talent, given the terrible quality of his current maps. However, he was steadfast in his belief that our maps must be awful if we considered them worse than ACK's, and then he blocked me (AIM).

So in summary, I offered to give AoD something that Reborn needs desperately: quality maps, and he turned us down really because of my respect for ACK. Furthermore, I wasn't incredibly dissatisfied with Reborn's first release, other than the sub-par texturing, nonexistant balancing, bad maps, and other various problems. Overall I was really excited to see a potentially successful Tiberium Sun mod for Renegade. But now Reborn seems like they're drifting - every new model they display is less and less like Tiberium Sun.

I find it hard to have much hope for a mod that has demonstrated almost surrealisticly massive deviation from their theme (TS), and refuses to adopt new leadership to replace the obviously inept current leaders.

htmlgodnot only does everyone pretty much agree that ACK makes the best maps around. Actually, there are a lot of people who really don't enjoy ACK's maps. Personally, if someone offered to make maps for me, but they told me the maps weren't as good as ACK's, I'd tell them to get lost.

Different people have different tastes. I understand that some people like ACK's maps. But lots of people don't. And if AoD doesn't, and you told him yours are even worse, then that's a perfectly good reason to refuse your mapping help.

I would NEVER ask for (or accept) help from someone who told me they do shitty work.

It seems to me that people are equating Reborn with AoD.

Many people seem not to like AoD.

AoD is not Reborn, in the same way that Ack isn't Renalert.

It is true that AoD isn't Reborn, and that Aircraftkiller isn't Renalert, but what better defines a mod than its development leader?

And mahkra.... I'm tempted to not even validate your comments with a response. Aircraftkiller's maps are the most downloaded and widely played maps around. I know that you have a personal problem with him, but that doesn't really change the fact that he's pretty much the best and most successful mapper around. (I'm referring to the dozens of maps by him that are played regularly, as opposed to most mappers, who only have a few decent maps.)

htmlgod, I don't dislike ACK's maps simply because they're made by him. I just don't enjoy them.

And I'm not the only person who thinks that.

All I'm saying is that ACK's maps are not universally liked, and if AoD doesn't like them, then why would he want maps that claim to be worse?

EDIT: Here's another example, to try to illustrate my point:

Most people would agree that RenAlert is the most successful Renegade mod. However, it is far from universally liked. Lots of people don't like RenAlert and choose not to play it.

Let's say "Bob" found a new mod, "ModX." He tells "Ted" to play the mod, but Ted wants to know what it's like before he tries it. Bob says, "well, it's not as good as RenAlert." Since Ted doesn't like RenAlert, he's not even remotely tempted to play ModX. Maybe he would like ModX if he tried it, but Bob advertised the mod in a way that made Ted think it would suck.

warranto that may be somewhat true, but there is a thing called tact, which many people here seem to lack.

How is it "somewhat" true? If they made it to where only they liked it, it wouldn't be for the public, but for themselves. And if it's for themselves, there's no need to publicly display the mod. Since they are publicly displaying it, that must mean it's for the public. Since it's for the public, the public needs to have a say.

Tact becomes useless when they just ignore everything. See what all the flaming has caused now? They're actually open to suggestions, and are actually listening. Tact didn't work well, flaming did.

argueing is fine, but saying "This mod was a waste of my time to play" Has the same effect as "You Suck!", it's just a lot easier to take. Tact people, tact.

tact (P) (tkt)
n.

Acute sensitivity to what is proper and appropriate in dealing with others, including the ability to speak or act without offending.

Note that even though it refers to not offending someone, that doesn't mean what you say won't offend. Just say what needs to be said in a way thats less impacting, but says the same thing.

The only thing that matters is that your first public beta is the current release, not that it's the first release. It's been around a year and there has been only 1 public release, no patches or other public releases what so ever, and this is about the only public release in the 2 some years this mod has been worked on.

Here is part of the reason why all this bashing is stupid to me. You people say the mod and the team sucks. You say the team suck based on the mod. You do realize that most of the new team had no input or any hand in making the version of Reborn that is currently out? I mean that would be the equalivant to people bashing Crimson for things about the Renegade Public Forums before she took over the helm. Doesnt seem fair does it?

No it isn't equivalent to Crimson and these forums, she had nothing to do with the moderation of these forums before.

Regardless of who is or isn't on the team anymore, it's still the Reborn team.

The only way for it to be equivalent to Crimson and these forums, would be if the Reborn team would just stop, and hand it all over to a completely new team.

Fair enough. Still....not saying you have or havent been with RenAlert since the beginning, I honestly dont know because I never looked. BUT, hypothetically-speaking, if you were not with RenAlert from the beginning and you recently joined, would you find it fair to have everything of yours bashed just because the current version of the project (which you had nothing to do with) is not up to par?
