In the file masters.brf I added c0nFuZ0r as the first name and a couple others for the second line and third line. The problem is, everytime I go into mIRC on c0nFuZ0r, it doesn't say I'm an admin. What should I do?

Earlier today I had my dedi up and I joined mIRC and I was an admin. I could control everything like I'm supposed to. So I shutdown the server for a few hours and I put mIRC back up and now I can't control anything from mIRC.. what am I doing wrong?

Masters.brf is for in-game admin, not IRC. I.E when you join your server if your name is in masters.brf you will be admin. If you want to control the bot in IRC you have to be eith operator (@), half-op(%) or voice (+) (note: Voice can't perform all commands). If you don't understand all this op business its best to get someone who understand IRC to help you.

Actually, how would you make yourself or others admin in the mIRC channel?

Read that

(Before you close your browser after reading stuff you already know, scroll down until you see the blue-ish pics For creating channels and stuff is in the brenbot tutorial)
