It is up to you, the visitors of the mod forum, to nominate someone to moderate this forum (the mod one) with an iron fist. Someone you see as fair who visits often.

Each potential moderator will need at least 3 nominations to get on the ballot. I will post the ballot in 24 hours, upon which everyone can vote on who gets the job.

Please reply to this message with who you'd like to nominate and why.

We dont really needa moderator. We need people to act more like a community, instead of think people are higher than others. The only reason this nominating is even brought is because of the that very reason. If we treated each other with some respect and as equals we wouldnt even by in this position.

Permagrin

He is the guy who has a sort of control on my anger... I don't know why, with TheKGBspy, he is the dude I appreciate the more in Reborn.

A lot of wisdom, I trust him and I am sure he will make a good moderator. He never bashed anybody and still doesn't.

See Ack, that is just my point. You think our work sucks. Different people have Different skills. I dont tell the people that come to my about things, there work sucks. I tell them ways I know to help them imporve. I try to help instead of just saying, "it sucks". I understand you think our work sucks, you have stated so many times it yeild no more of an effect. I used to pick out things in RenAlert to counter you on, then I realized how immature it all was.

Reason: He has had extensive experience in 'modding' Renegade, creating maps and various other things. He is upfront about other peoples work.

However, a lot people hate him. Probably because they take his comments too personally. I remember last time he was a moderator here he caught a lot of flak, but I think he is upto the job.

I don't see what me cheating in your Bullshit Chances server has anything to do with my capability to moderate this forum... I was under the impression that an unbiased moderator was wanted...And I'm affiliated with neither reborn nor renalert. Also, making a known cheater a moderator for a modification forum seems a bit iffy to me...It's like rewarding you for contradicting the "company" you "work" for.

I may not like you, but I harbor no hatred for your modification. I have never spread any cheats; however, I did send them to crimson/blazer, so that they could better prepare their servers. I know I can't win because this "voting" process is most likely rigged anyway, but I figured I'd give it a shot so I can have a good laugh.

And if BHS doesn't think there's anything wrong with cheating...Then why does RenGuard even exist? Now I see why you don't speak for BHS anymore.

I've cheated once, that doesn't constitute "cheats" as in "more than once." It was to prove a point and get out some anger against an intangible enemy unless I felt like driving down to south Florida to take care of it myself.

Idiot.

Maybe you're not such a bad guy Scrumfy, but I still don't want you moderating the forum. You don't have the experience or the skill required for it, there are many better candidates... shudder even NeoX.

Aircraftkiller! I've cheated once, that doesn't constitute "cheats" as in "more than once." It was to prove a point and get out some anger against an intangible enemy unless I felt like driving down to south Florida to take care of it myself.

Idiot.

Maybe you're not such a bad guy Scrumfy, but I still don't want you moderating the forum. You don't have the experience or the skill required for it, there are many better candidates... shudder even NeoX.

I'm interested to hear how I lack experience...I mean, I only moderate our own forums. Plus the fact that I have been playing this game just as long as you have, and have an understanding of the engine (although it may be rather basic compared to some of the folks around here). And no, we don't run renguard because we want to play with cheaters...We don't run it because we feel that manual moderation can do the trick (and keep full servers). Personally, I'd rather not get into that again, though.

I think both Renardin and Permagrín should be disqualified - <http://www.reborn.communityteam.de/renardin/forum/viewtopic.php?t=1132>

I think Renardin and Permagrín ought to be out of the running, for trying to rustle up personality points from their forums, which are basically filled with the brainwashed hoardes. Even if they are not disqualified, I think the votes from people who don't regularly post here should be counted (IE all the reborn fans who just joined up or became active again in order to support their Reborn buddies).

Yes obviously they have no interest in the forum.

A mod forum moderator should be able to help the members of the forum with problems they have or questions they ask. He should have experience in modifying renegades assets and know how to do them and explain them to the members. That is what I think at least.

I know a few nominated people who know nothing of the sort.

I can throw myself in aswell.

I Know Enough about modding Renegades Assesst's aswell as a good set of knowledge in Gmax/3D Studios Max. Im willing to help others , which can be easily proven by my posts here or at <http://www.modding.renstation.net> , <http://www.n00bstories.com> or the Reborn (www.cncreborn.de) and Renalert (www.renalert.com) Mod forums. I dont think I ever get too involved into the flame wars. I also do not have a biased oppinion on any modifications for this community.

Think of the Dough Boy.

What I really want to see is someone who is willing to help others trying to learn to mod and is there to answer there questions when they are asked.

Wow, the "we need someone to mod the flamewars" thread has turned into another war :S

Seems like this thread jsut popped out of no where, but i actually got a few votes O_o

I wouldn't mind doing the job, but if being a part of RenAlert disqualifies me, then that's understandable. (Although I am a mod for jsut about everything else Crimson owns)

I don't have a clue who to nominate....90% of the people that do visit here often contribute to the spam/flaming. I'll leave it at that, this will probly be locked within a couple hours anyway...

Slash0xSilent KaneWho: DaRenx

Why: He wouldn't abuse it like the other recommended people. And he would do great work there. He also does a great job for similar things. No other person who belongs to a mod team (besides DaRenX) should be used since I already can see posts even whole topics getting deleted due to the biased opionion there.

DaRenX, why? Because I feel sympathy for him when I own him at sniping. Just kidding, what SK said.

I humbly nominate myself, but I doubt I'd be able to drum up enough support for myself =\ . I have enough sense to moderate this forum, and to judge whatever is horribly off topic; I visit practically every day; and, I have no affiliations with either RenAlert or Reborn. Plus, I have a bit of modding knowledge myself.

All in all, I have nothing to gain from acquiring moderatorship--I just want to see this place for what it should be: a place to help others in modifying our title game--not a hostile, alienating environment.

He's moderated before, and from my standpoint, did a good job in the mod forum. During the time he moderated them, there wasn't one off topic post.

The only reason he isn't moderating right now is because of those who dislike him whined until they got their way. Even though he was doing a great job.

well first this is for Crimson:

Is the past weeks have something related to the pm i sended to u? i mean since that i saw some change (removal of flame stuff on some treads, this poll). Well keep it up, at leats you did a move but it would have been interesting to know if you readed my pm and get a feedback :/

About me, well i am neutral, most of the time i try to understand why people have a problem with something and try to do the "balance" wich is ask on both side to do something without bashing. some refered me. Yea i i am a part of reborn team but that does not make me hat or love more a mod or a team. i do respect both mod but i hate the flaming around that; well any kind of flaming is actually useless.. i dont find that a good way to discuss, express tought about someone or something.. anyway you got the idea (well i hope) Sure i would like to be one but dunno if i would have the time :/

Finaly about my vote i agree the fact that no R.a. or Re. member should be(even if i told i would like to be one, except that i am neutral. I am not telling this because i am the only one in the two teams... IMO for R.A. team Darkblade would get my Vote but lets stay most neutral as possible) About scrumfy sorry m8 i dont know u alot. About YSLMuffin she get my vote i know her (well how she is) and what she did all those year in RenForums and i never saw her flame.. but just complaining about stop that wich i greatly undertstand. So Good luck YSLMuffin.
