The nominations are in, here are your choices. Vote above.

Renardin
Permagrin
NeoX
RenX
Scrumfy
Aircraftkiller
Exdeath7
YSLMuffins
Seaman
PiMuRho
SomeRhino
Dante
NO ONE

I include the last option so you can decline to vote and still see the results. But if "NO ONE" wins, then no one wins.

Please vote for the person you feel is best qualified and will do the best job, even if you don't think the "popular" vote will swing that way. The second place winner might also get moderator status.

When you vote, consider that person's ability to act without bias, to be here often, and to help LEAD this forum, not just keep it clean.

The poll is set for 3 days. Some time on Monday, I will take the results of the poll and set up the winner.

I see, I leave for a couple of days, and a new moderator gets added.

Why do you hate me so, Crimson?

Anyway, my vote goes to RenX. He seems like a fair moderator, and has done a good job moderating n00bstories.

Well sure! Ask crimson to check the ips, they should all be different people...If they aren't, don't blame me. Some people also had problems with the activation e-mail thing, and I think crimson had to do one manually or something. Believe me, I'm not about to have people intentionally mess up the results, I'm above that.

I don't know about you, but I tend to think that our forums should not be moderated by someone selected by a bunch of people who joined just so that they could vote for the individual. That kind of defeats the purpose of allowing our members to choose a moderator.

I would be inclined to agree, except that these folks frequent these forums (they ARE the official ren ones) but, as you can see above, may not want to post or whatnot. It doesn't change the fact that they can still vouch for my credibility and moderation ability, as most come from bc's forums.

People who register simply to vote are still part of the Renegade community; not everyone who has Renegade has registered on these forums, you know. They deserve to vote.

Question: If you haven't participated in this forum before today, why should your vote count for something? I would bet the only reason Scrumfy has the sheer number of votes he does is because people came over from another forum, who have no interest whatsoever in this one, simply to vote for him. I don't accuse scrumfy of anything here, nor intend to suggest he should be punished for it. But I mean give me a break. It's petty.

I will, if I find out that it was in fact intentional. Even from months ago, people were having problems registering (and not getting an activation e-mail). I can't be sure if it was a mistake or not...yet.

On a side note, isn't one IP only allowed one vote? Is UBB different or something?

warrantoQuestion: If you haven't participated in this forum before today, why should your vote count for something? The reasons are stated above...But I'll reiterate. Reading these forums does not require membership, and as such, many of our forumgoers also read posts here. We keep up to date on the conversion mods and server- and client-side fixes/modifications. They have an opinion, I'm not just senselessly spamming a link here and asking for votes. They know the situation, and they can finally do something about all of the hostility and bashing...I'm sure they'd say so themselves but most don't seem to be big fans of some certain people here anyway. I don't think it's petty; I do, however, think it's petty to assume that just because someone decides to register to vote for this poll, that they have no idea what has been happening here. Quite the contrary, actually...

Okay, this topic doesn't need to become a flamewar over accidental extra votes/registrations. I'll trust crimson to set it back to how it should be, if it is not already that way. I'm also not going to argue about why renegade players who read these forums should or should not have an opinion on this matter...it's not up to me anyway. If any other anomalies within the votes occur, let me know (especially if it seems intentional to you). Oh and, I certainly hope there are two winners here...One person alone would undoubtedly be accused of bias and favoritism.

Just thought I would state that I voted for Dante. There are some others on the list that I would also vote for, but I choose Dante because:

1. He has always shown that he is fair
 2. He has vast knowledge of Renegade modding
 3. He is respected by many members of the modding community
 4. He has shown in the past that he would make a good moderator, with littler tolerance for flaming and other stupid stuff that doesnt belong in this more serious section of these forums.

warranto2 (votes), not posts

He has TWO POSTS. My original statement stands. I say that all votes submitted by new accounts created just today, which are obviously smurf accounts just to pad someones vote...should be discounted heh, personally I wouldn't mind the vote between jonwil and Dante. Unfortunately I think it's down to YSLMuffins and Scrumfy (no insult intended to either) simply because of the number of people joining simply to vote, and those wanting to counter said votes.

Fine be that way . I read your post as implying he had 3 posts from the IP. Misinterpretation on my part. But I agree, anyone with an account created today should have their votes discounted.

I say all voters that voted today and registered today should be deleted. If they didnt register yesterday , too damn bad.

Excuse my french but "you're a fucking liar". I just checked the web logs, and guess what?
YOUR IP OR EVEN NETWORK HAS NEVER BEEN TO THIS WEBSITE UNTIL TODAY

And furthermore, the weblogs also show your referrer url, which means the link you clicked to in order to get here. That referral URL is:

<http://ircd2.lomag.net/~wtdragon5/forum/index.php?s=f3ec86f9eb5ce5e6b5af0625054b4690&showtopic=2535>

Which is basically a "click here and go vote for Scrumfy" advertisement. Ironically posted by someone else who never comes to these forums. Even as I sit here clicking refresh, scrumfys votes are going up, and guess what the referrer URLs are

213.107.x.x - - [27/Aug/2004:07:08:06 -0500] "GET /viewtopic.php?p=110506 HTTP/1.1" 200
99435 "http://ircd2.lomag.net/~wtdragon5/forum/index.php?s=f3ec86f9eb 5ce5e6b5af0625054b4690&showtopic=2535" "Mozilla/4.0 (compatible; MSIE 6.0; Windows NT
5.1; FunWebProducts; Hotbar 4.4.6.0; .NET CLR 1.1.4322)"

FFS the whole purpose of voting for someone to fairly moderate the mod forum is that it would be

1. Someone who is a frequent visitor/contributor of the mod forum.
2. The persons voting are also frequent visitors/contributors of the mod forum, or at LEAST members of these forums in general!

The reason for the vote was to find the best person FOR THE JOB...not a damn popularity contest, or to see how many votes someone can spam their way into.

I'm pissed about the way this whole thing has turned out. Crimson of course has final say, but as of right now I'm calling off this "vote". I for one dont want to spend an hour of my time wading through web logs just to find all the duplicate voters and blatant liars like the guy above...and probably no matter who is "chosen" there will be X number of people saying the vote was "unfair". So to hell with it.

Poll closed:

Who should moderate the mod forum?

jonwil	10%	[8]
Renardin	1%	[1]
Permagrin	5%	[4]
NeoX	1%	[1]
RenX	3%	[3]
Scrumfy	29%	[23]
Aircraftkiller	2%	[2]
Exdeath7	0%	[0]
YSLMuffins	31%	[24]
Seaman	0%	[0]

PiMuRho 5% [4]
SomeRhino 0% [0]
Dante 9% [7]
NO ONE 0% [0]

Total Votes : 77

The actions of several voters are disgraceful. This was intended to be a democratic vote where the visitors of the forum chose a moderator, but instead you turned it into a popularity contest.

Blazer and I choose YSLMuffins and Dante as the new moderators of the forums. Check your PMs for instructions.
