"[14] Unauthorized file data\BlazeRotate3\Rotate.ini has been found in your renegade directory
[14] Disconnected from RenGuard network"

Well. And, if you don't know what BlazeRotate 3 is, it chances some of the game sounds to change everytime it happens [Boinks, wins, beacons..].

Hopefully this will be fixed, becose I really liked BlazeRotate 3, but I don't think so, becose it's .ini [Well. I have no idea how the cheats actually work, but someone may disguise a cheat into Rotate.ini ?]

And by the way. Music files are allowed by RenGuard?

Yes, sound files are allowed.

You'll just have to wait untill someone adds Rotate.ini to the "authorized files" list or whatever it's called.
