Its a .mix file, so you can play it in rotation with other WW maps if you like.Go to the lan, and where it says mod package, select "none" and in all the WW maps there should be a map called C&C_River_Raid.Mix -- Put that in your map rotation.

Why do you criticize everyone ack. You should be banned, name one good reason why you shouldnt. I can tell you this, you intimidate people, you make fun of their work, you post pictures that are offending. All good reasons why WestWood should ban you for good. Also your maps are bad. Lets see how you like it when people make fun of your maps.

Do you even know what you're writing? Or what 'you're' means?I find that doubtful.As for the 'include' comment, you obviously do not have much of a grasp of the English language if you think the word include was used improperly in that sentence I made. Why don't you go back to third grade, learn what 'you're' is, or just write out 'you are'? Oh, don't forget those question marks. Remember, an interrogative sentence is not ended with a period. It ends with a question mark, my mentally retarded enemy.

seriously though... why does all of this ALWAYS happen. it seems like everyone cant go more than 5 posts without a flame war erupting. and i mean, its pretty funny but its also insanely childish. i think if EVERYONE just acted with a little more civility and stopped trying to have the last word, this forum could be the community its intended to be rather than the battlefield it is now.

in the future, if things are gettin hot, just everyone take a deep breath and go make a smoothie.
