Does anyone know if there is a way to make a .pkg clone of Dragonade?

I really don't think Black Cell would appreciate this.

You don't need to be attempting to make a clone if you honestly think it remotely involves .pkg files.

Yeah, you could say that.

I have somewhat of a "clone" sitting on my desktop. It's just a matter of getting the motivation to finish it.

Not really. 1/2 the stuff you guys are looking for isn't even contained in Dragonade.

i think you guys will find it in a server side hevily modded scripts.dll along side with one or more .ini or .inf files. NOT .pkg. But don't do anything....vlokyboy will have another cry....

I don't think vlokt would have a problem with you coming up with your own scripts and commands, as has been said before, no one owns the ability to write scripts. It's just that you wouldn't have had any idea about half of this stuff without his ingenuity to come up with it.

Well, he's a bit strange sometimes and has already expressed that he doesn't like people copying his scripts.

Take the side conversation to the Hot Issues forum so I don't have to lock this.

Locking it would be preferable...YSL was correct in her statement, and I'd rather not see vloktbody's work be trampled on by those who dislike him. I don't see any positive sentiments coming from any further discussion on this topic.

It's not really about what you want though. Anyone can express their opinions here, it's not a forum where people are supposed to blindly praise everything.

I'm locking this--I felt nothing good could come from this thread yesterday and I still do.
