You have Clash but not "Should I Stay or Should I Go"?

I'm not going to post 330 songs on here...too long to put on a thread. If I stop being so lazy, I may put it on a file and upload it. Maybe, though.

I hate when people slander the spelling of my favorite classic rock groups.

It's Bob Seger and it's (Lynyrd) Skynyrd.

I luckily burned most of my songs onto 2 cds because I bought an mp3/cd player. After yesterday, I am SOOOOO glad that I bought it. 1. I needed a cd player, 2. I wanted a mp3/cd player for a while. 3. My 160GB HDD (with my music) was formatted by accident by DarkDemin when he was trying to get my computer up and running after last weekend.

J, i love ya dude but i wish i could come and slap you right now. I hate when people say OMG OMG YOU DON'T HAVE THIS SONG!!! I do have the song in many diffren't recordings duh, however its just like a moron that heard 2 AC/DC songs there entire life and say "Omg you don't have 1121 thunderstruck" just because they heard it on a movie that took 7 minute or so song and made it a minute long. ALL OF THE CLASHES SONGS ARE GREAT, not just the few that have been publised lately after the recent out break of little faggots thinking there cool because they butcher punk rock almost as bad as i do the english language.

And we're all too blame,
We've gone too far,
From pride to shame,
We're trying so hard,
We're dying in vain,
We're hopelessly blissful and blind

To all we are,
We want it all with no sacrifice!

Any guess?

Yea, for the publicity, right?

I don't know, I just don't find myself really liking Metallica. I've only been hearing one song now and then. That could be one reason, and another is I just think it's a little too dark.

Here's a snapshot of what I have on my PC right now. This isn't counting about 25 gigs of stuff I burned off recently, most of which was game music and indie rock.

I'll post up a playlist of what's on the machine in a bit, once it gets done enqueueing everything.

I thought me planning on having around 700+ classic rock albums on my computer was a lot, but your 60GB takes the cake.
