this is a newbe question:I have just finished creating a level from gmax, i know where it is located. The question i am asking is where do i place it to be able to edit its properties (i know it is somewhere in the commando level editor, but where?). eg give it textures.in other words i want my gmax level to be editable in commando level editor [September 30, 2002, 21:52: Message edited by: chompy]
