If people have been getting the Ipods, I can only assume they will get a DS too.

right....thats why everytime i see anyone do this stuff a week later they are email the company saying "Where's my stuff?" a month later "im pissed off now, where's my stuff!?!?" and so on.

they are going to send you a $150 for having ten people sign up for their spam list.

They have to sign up for things that end up costing more money than the iPod does. It's not just an e-mail.

Um, Exdeath, I HIGHLY recommend NOT to use your main email address for submitting to sites like that. You could get a large amount of spam easily.

Do the blockbuster one, that one is free and Block Buster is a good company. Just make sure to cancel before the free trial ends.

It requires information I don't feel like giving out. Isn't there something on there where I can just register and not need to give out a credit card number or anything?
