Some time ago I started collecting a bunch of skins and ended up with a 200-250MB big .rar file.

Instead of just delete it and a hell of alot skins just goes away (over 1000) in vain I wanna share them to the community, what rights do I have to share them?

I dont have any of the creators approval for shareing the work. Do I need?

50% of the files include .txt files with credit the creator the other 50% does not.

The skins include tanks, inf, buildings, doors, bullets, ion/nuke, weapons, mines, sniper scope and whatever else you can think of.

The file is over 1 year old and was supposed to include "approved" models for renguard when it was planned.

Just mark them as Unknown Author and state that if the author claims it then you will give them credit.

I have been waiting some time for that website of yours to get put up...

P.S if you decide not to use them can you put the RAR file onto your webserver so I can download them?

Here's the links.

Every download are around 20MB

5 rar files, I got 6 more, 5=20MB and last is 9-10MB

Next week I upload the other 5 so everyone have the chance to download these.

The files in these .rar files from 2003-07-XX - 2003-09-01

It took me many days to find these and its a total of 1006 skins.

glyde51Why do some of the files only have one file in theM?

How should I know, ask whoever that create it

Well you maybe ask why rar down 1 file?

Its simple, mac wanted it that way.
