I think they still exist, but the last time i was on WOL, nobody was in them. Which was strange since those were some of the best servers. They emptied initially in response to them being one of the few RG servers out there but now almost everyone uses RG so I don't know why they're still empty.

They usually go by the names of

a1nssvr1
a1nssvr2
a1nssvr3

Something like....someone correct me if I'm wrong.

They are offline while we test and fix the CP1 zero bug. They will be back soon.
