Since its a patch, the only wqy to get rid of it is to reinstall renegade, and instruct renguard not to download it again.

You know what I've realized? All the people who bitch and complain are those people who I'd rather not see in the same game as me.

GOM THERE R MUCH LAG NOW!!!1

Yeah but it's a pity nobody was told the only way to get rid of the patch before they installed it, me included.
luckily I got rid of the game, which seems to have solved the myriad of problems occuring when playing it.
