Less people play becasue the game is filled with morons now, who would rather try and lick the wall through their screen than do anything remotely useful.

ROFL, this is a more accurate descritpion.

Too many n00bs, its not like how it used to be , to many idiots that are there for nothing but to accuse us old timers of cheating and think there leet shit because they can point whore with a tank or waist the entire teams mines for a "suicide" bomber. ANd HL2 game out,

Once the first public beta of a CnC mod comes out for HL2, I'll get it. But I won't stop playing Renegade until Blackhand Studios goes out, if they ever do.

Around the time Halo 2 and Half-Life 2 were released, Renegade lost approximately 6,000 ranked players. 19,593 still remain. Renegade didn't get hurt that badly by those two great releases, I'm surprised.

...In fact, they might not of hurt it at all, this could just be a bad month.

Let's take this moment to compare Half-Life 2 / Half-Life 2: Death Match / Counter-Strike: Source to Renegade.

Okay, there is no comparrison what-so-ever. The graphics in Renegade sucks. The gameplay now sucks. It sucks.

On the other hand. Half-Life 2 was awesome. "Best graphics ever" (it has this award). Half-Life 2: Death Match, very fun, great addon. Counter-Strike: Source, not only is Counter-Strike the most played Multiplayer game ever, it now has the best graphics I've possibly ever seen (with everything on full, of course).

I'm sorry to say, but I think Renegade has come to it's final weeks/months. Next summer, I predict no-one will be playing Renegade.

Hmmm maybe crimson can write an email to EA convincing them to release renegade as a free donwloadable game for christmas. I would do it but my word in this community means very little compared to Crimson.

That would indeed bring tons more players (The ones that have never bothered to buy it would surely see it on fileplanet) and we might get a larger community. All in all it would give the game more time and it would promote people to play the mods going to Half-Life 2.

EA would rather see Renegade rot in obscurity than release the game as a free downloadable game. Wouldn't that mean they'd have to allocate more precious tech support time to a game they hate only because they didn't think of it first?

ROFL, nice explanation wezel. I too agree with his theory, if they haven't even released Tiberian Dawn (full version) as a free downloadable, what are the chances of Renegade. EA will attempt to suck every last revenue from Renegade through their Ren/RA2/TS Pack until it's crippled and desolate like the parasitic leeches they are.

Allout.co.uk isn't the only server with people on it. :rolleyes: There are the FanMaps servers and Stormhost servers.

Don't tell me you're playing on the European server, because that server sucks.

EU server is as good as "dead" yes, but there are still about about 500 players (that's what RG says) playing every day on USA and Gayspy.

For a game that old, it's not too few.

Edit: 500 that use RG, now + all those non-RG users = ...?

Yea renegade is losing players.
But the major loss started after december 2003.

Also playing on euro isnt worth it. the only thing to have there is a server cuz it will actualy fill up = on usa is dead for sur

Thoug i think the better public players, are on usa.

AircraftkillerRenegade sucks, that's why almost no one plays.

[9:15] [@n00bsvr01]: RenGuard Status: ONLINE. The RenGuard Network has 496 users and 83 servers.

Not bad for 9:15AM...and that is JUST RenGuard users

Aircraftkiller, I'm really getting tired of one of the biggest contributors to this game, constantly bashing it. Why don't you just uninstall it and stop posting here if it sucks so much?
