I got that after renguard kept shutting down renegade at random times when i join FANMAPS
[Updated ^] I tried rejoining 3 times and the last time that popped up, cna someone tell me what renguard thought I was doing? Also, would it matter that i have different songs replacing the originals and a cnc_c130drop.txt file in my data folder?

EDIT: c130drop file removed, game crash on map load now...
