Does anyone know of a good group of servers? I was recently playing on UNRules servers but I ticked off one of their big important people and am not ever allowed to return because of it.

I would prefer a good new maps server like the one that UNRules has.

A good CTF and/or DM and /or inf only would be good as well.

Any good server that is up most of the time would be good though.

Before I went to UNRules I was at Fastc0nn and BCServ but they both seem to have gone out of existence. Any advice?

If I play I usually go for Dark Angels AOW, Black-Cell AOW, or The-Pits. They seem to have the least amount of dipshits.

Its hard to find a server without dipshits these days. :sigh:

The-Pitts and n00bstories are the best two servers out there. They offer good ping and admins.

the last times i played on the pits server the admins forceRged anyone simpy for killing them. they ran forcerg to get ppl out of the game so they wouldnt die anymore. they pretend to run a fair server but theyve got a bunch of asshole mods from what ive seen playng there. theyre one reason why i dont play on that server anymore. xphaze is a great alt server to play in.

Well i admit , the moderation in the pitts isn't exactly the best but I've never had a problem in n00bstories.

You're the same guy who doesn't trust RG either, hence why you banned people for cheating while still using it... The argument you're making doesn't hold water. I've said my piece, out of this thread.

If you feel that you were unjustly treated, go to <http://un.w1ley.net/>
forum Moderators/Servers and ask to be unbanned.

Unless you already did that....

Everyone gets a little hot under the collar at times, especially when you have a team of n00bs and you just got your ass waxed. :rolleyes:

I get kicked from server sometimes... I never know why since i don't pay attention to the text to often while i play...

On other servers mods/admins are crap.

I end up playing on BC a lot since they run some nice server sided stuff (to bad they don't update that anymore) and the mods aren't a that big pain in the ***... But without fan made maps it get's boring fast...

Hands down the best running server out there - Renstratagem <http://renstrat.the-order.org/>
RenWarz is fun with seasoned players as well.

You're wrong, and just use the same story to help make yourself feel better.. You're the only person I've ever banned while running renguard, and it was because you admitted cheating on servers like BC to "get back at them" and because it "was funny".. The ban had nothing to do with what you were doing in the server at the time.. If I wanted my argument to hold water, I would have written it on a bucket, not on these forums.

Run along now..

I have a hard time playing on WOL 'cause I forgot my password and the damn form to get them mailed to you doesn't work anymore. I use the UNLauncher exclusively these days.

Is WOL even needed to connect to servers or could we just get servers to list their IP addresses at this forum, sticky the topic, and then just connect directly to the server?
