I have seemed to notice alot of Xbox fans around. So I gave it a try. The game I am really hooked on now is Call of Duty: Finest Hour. I play it on Xbox every weekend. My gamertag is Patsworld19. Feel free to give me a buzz if you want to play sometime. I'll try and post some screen shots of me and my mates playing.

I am sorry for you people. I have been around here longer than you people. I have been here for a number of months. I stopped posting when I was shipped to Iraq. Ask any of the senior ranked members. Except for you jsp.

Personally, I prefer the PC version of Call of Duty. Multiplay and level design are better in the PC version.

Roger that.

Plus it's uber hard to aim with Xbox (and yes, I do have an Xbox, I know what it's like).

we have all been here for a number of months, and no you haven't been here longer than me. Also, what the hell does that post have to do with Call of Duty anyway?

back on topic, Call of Duty pc is amazing, haven't tried Xbox version.

I own both versions. It's not that hard to aim, just move your right joystick anywhere and your cursor goes there. It's kinda hard to explain if I'm not making sense. I personally think that the PC version of the game is frustrating because there is so many buttons you need to use. Xbox only has seven or eight buttons so there is no room for major error. The Xbox game rooms go on forever though( PC too, but not as often). I played last weekend, and I stopped after killing my 150th German with the Springfield.

Icedog90, I'll play you some time this weekend. I'll show you how to navigate and shoot easier. You just have to play around with the settings a bit to get to your most comfortable likings.

Honestly, I feel the PC is better suited to gaming. The mouse just works better than a joystick for me. I played a bit of the online, and I have to say, compared to Call of Duty and United Offensive, it sucks.

I have a few things to say about Call of Duty. But it will only cause trouble.
