This is quite possibly the most pathetically stupid cheater I've seen.

As you know, I'm administrator of NoN00bs.net servers and forums. This morning, I was in the server and noticed a player called LVL999.

He didn't really achieve much, didn't kill any buildings, didn't even get that many kills... which, as you'll soon see, is rather pathetic.

After I left, apparently he was accused of bighead. I don't know who by. He indignantly insisted that he didn't cheat, and said he'd post a screenshot to shut this n00b up.

Here's what he posted on our forums.

<http://non00bs.net/forum/index.php?showtopic=2376>

If you aren't registered on the forums, here's the screenshot he posted.

The stupidity of some people never ceases to baffle me. Thankfully, steps can be taken.

Looks like he got owned by a razor "MTV jackass" style twice, but other than that I don't get it? What's odd?

It's a cheat similar to bighead, it makes ALL characters have invisible bigheads, including black hand snipers and stuff. When a player is using it, all GDI characters look like Havoc and all Nod characters look like Petrova (except for their heads and weapons) As you can see, he's actually a Deadeye (look at his ammo count - sniper rifle, and his head)

Once we suspended his account, he re-registered on the forums under the name NovaNovember, from the same IP. He posted a picture on several threads which makes IE crash just looking at it, though Firefox is OK.

His IP:69.136.67.175. We're gonna have a little fun with him.

Undisputably. However, cheating, consistently lying and deliberately trying to crash a forum just because you got caught cheating isn't that good either.

Let me re-iterate.

While stuff like ddosing is pretty gay, our only intent here is to protect our servers and forums from a retard who is trying to attack them without the slightest provocation. Unless you count the fact that we banned him for cheating as "provocation"

I was thinking along the lines of Spoony DDoS n00b.

I don't want you or your servers to get DDoSed, Spoony.

if someone pisses all over your car and you punch them, does that make you a bad person?

Well, since you asked, I don't think it would make you a bad person as such... but I think it would be the wrong thing to do.

That doesn't matter. Yes, it does make you a bad person, a good one would just go through the car wash.

Spoonyif someone pisses all over your car and you punch them, does that make you a bad person?

How is that relevant? It's completely opposite situations. One is real life whereas the other is the internet.

You don't see VALVe DDoSing cheaters, do you?

IRON-FARTWhat can I say? At least he was honest.

No he wasn't honest, he posted the bighead box screenshot in the belief nobody would know what the cheat was, and after I banned him he made eleven, yes ELEVEN posts lying about his use of cheats. That is not my definition of honestly. Then once he realised it was hopeless, he spammed about ten threads with a series of pictures which crashes your IE to open the thread (Firefox unaffected).

Yes, that's exactly the cheat I'm talking about, and since it's someone in +RST+ who is constantly bragging the chatrooms about how he's the leet god of sniping, I can't say I'm surprised.
