I think its WOL side.

Not sure if it is anything we can change...

although, i could be wrong

you could use xfire, a buddy list tht works for many games including wol, but then everyone in you clan would need to use it.

I don't think it's WOL side, When you open the buddy list, Renegade locates every player on WOL, the buddy is saved on the WOL server, but not the locations of each player.

It would be the same if you would /locate every one of the 20 players, but Renegade does it for you
