Ten days ago, DarkOmen told me he will not be able to help us for a long period because of some personal reasons. So the whole Reborn team decided to change some stuff. We have now a new leader : Laeubi. We are also building a whole new beta and so we aren't keeping any of the old bugs or craps of the last beta (which totally make pointless the whole bash stuff of some people...).

Permagrin and Exdeath7 are working on the animation because TheKGBspy is spending some time away of modding but don't worry, he will come back. Here are some examples of the animation on the Cyborg Reaper, just remember that nothing is final, it's really wip as we have already a new version of the animation under work.

Legs movement of the Reaper: <http://cncreborn.iconique.net/team/renardin/legsmove.avi>

Some test on a DM map: <http://cncreborn.iconique.net/team/renardin/reapertest.avi>

(and yes it stops walking when you go out...)

You will need the DivX codec to watch those videos:

I mean come on, you're hiring the guy who did this:

lol, he isn't making maps or models... wanna talk about your great maps like c&c_glacier ? lol, I am happy that you laugh with us...

The special feature I like the most is the ability of removing mines just under the bridge... A nice bug... The other cool point is that you have base defenses but for what ? With a simple normal walk and a tach or an hotwire, you can destroy the whole enemy base... Most hated map of renegade players ? Your c&c_glacier shit.

Now, having doubt about the ability of laeubi to build the beta with our models is quite funny... Please laugh with us again...

(Jonathan, you suck.)

You absolutely hate it when people call you ACK (because that's not your name), but it's perfectly all right for you to call Laeubi 'Loobie'? Please amuse me more, ACK!

Sir Phoenixxj4S[p]

So, funny how you don't like being called 'ACK' or 'AssCrackFiller", yet you continue to call people what their name tag says that they are not. You're a fucking hypocrite. :rolleyes:

Treat others the way you want to be treated, jackass.

Right, and I'm guessing you wouldn't like to be called a "fucking hypocrite" or a jackass, so according to you, you're a hypocrite.

Not liking something being done/said to you while doing something similar to someone else isn't hypocritical.

No. He deserves to be called rude names if that's what he's doing. All he does is make fun of people's work, call people who actually stick up for those people idiots, and work on his mod that he refuses to show in-game models in. ACK, AssCrackFiller, or AircraftKiller, you need to shut the fuck up and start being helpful to everyone on this forum.

re-spect Pronunciation Key (r-spkt)
tr.v. re-spect-ed, re-spect-ing, re-spects

1. To feel or show deferential regard for [someone, myself]; esteem.
2. To avoid violation of or interference with: respect the speed limit.
3. To relate or refer to; concern.

#1. Shows exactly what I'm doing. That is because I am helpful to people when I know what is wrong, instead of saying the model looks like plastic, I tell them exactly what is wrong. I've never gone up to a model someone has made and just said "It sucks".

Seriously, ACK and his ass kissers, get a fucking life. You get what you deserve.

and you diss anyone's opinion in support of Reborn, even though on your forum you religiously preach:

ACKRespect the beliefs of everyone else...

Keep your arguments focused on allowing a free exchange of ideas to ensue, not "well ur wrong cuz i think ur stoopid."

Yet you came onto the RenAlert IRC and started bashing my opinion, saying that my opinion was wrong because I support Reborn, why don't you practice what you preach, also since I became a fan of Reborn you've been searching for a reason to ban me, well here's your reason you ignorant fuck, you and all your so called "old time" arse kissing "make me a beta tester" fans can go fuck yourselves.

1. My name isn't ack, and if you call "My name isn't ack" freaking out, you've got a strange definition of it. There is nothing hypocritical about that, perhaps learning what a hypocrite is would be better than throwing words around to look more intelligent than you are.

2. I'm not sad at all. I'm quite happy.

3. I don't know what a wanker is, keep in mind that most of us wanted to separate from Britian because you guys like to make up a bunch of words for everyday items.

5. Those rules are part of my forum, not this forum, not my IRC channel, and not how I deal with Reborn when it isn't part of that forum. Each individual forum has its own rules. The political forum has those rules set up to allow a free exchange of opinions and ideas so that people can discuss issues of importance without someone turning it into a simple insult war you find everywhere else.

Erm...Faggot doesn't have to be used that way all the time. Neither does wanker.

Half the time when you call someone a faggot, it doesn't mean you're calling them gay. If you call someone a wanker it's not as if you know that they excessively masturbate. Whoever called ACK a wanker doesn't know that he excessively masturbates.

It has the same negative connotations and the same effect.
