I went to play today, clicked "Renegade" (in RG) and it made my system turn off, and then restart with the wonderful "System had a serious error" message.

Three times.

So I figured I'd start Renegade FIRST, right? Which worked. Until I launched RG, at which time it forced a reboot again. Now I'm gonna have to deal with morons saying I cheat, again.

Shit, I was actually gonna ask you later for a log of that. It's priceless.

No way in hell I'm kicking myself. I'm on my "Trusted List"

Renguard just behaved as if I had freshly reinstalled, and now everything works again. Creepy.

Going offtopic makes you look like a n00b for sure. Nobody's ever had Renguard make their computer restart before?
